

Overview Guide

TICKETS

Adult	¥3,300
Youth	¥2,200
Child	¥1,100
Preschooler	Free

All prices include tax.

LOCATION

56 Kaguraden, Ogura-cho,
Uji-shi, Kyoto 611-0042

Formerly known as the Nintendo Gallery, the Nintendo Museum in Kyoto is a showcase of the company's long history, from its early days producing Hanafuda cards to the modern Nintendo Switch. The museum highlights Nintendo's evolution through interactive exhibits, such as giant-sized controllers and hands-on experiences with their classic toys and games.

2F

EXHIBIT AREA

This is the main area of the museum!

Includes not only all of the Nintendo consoles, each with its corresponding Nintendo-published games, but also several other Nintendo products from the earliest days. Several individual walls, along with giant controllers, help distinguish these sections.

IMPORTANT:

No photography or video recording allowed on this floor.

DETAILS

- Wall of all Nintendo-published games for a certain console
- Videos playing on small TVs above that shows gameplay videos
- A small display case featuring the detailed size specs of consoles

N64 giant controller.

Detailed descriptions on the other side.

1F

INTERACTIVE EXHIBITS

An extraordinary play experience!

Variety of interactive experiences are available on this floor. You need to use the “virtual coins” assigned into your entry pass ticket to play. You will be assigned 10 coins, and unfortunately, it's not enough to use them to play all of the experiences.

Including:

ZAPPER & SCOPE 1 x 4

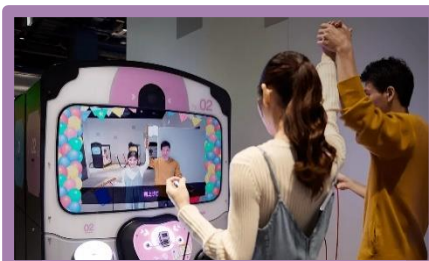

GIANT CONTROLLER 1 x 2

ULTRA MACHINE 1 x 2

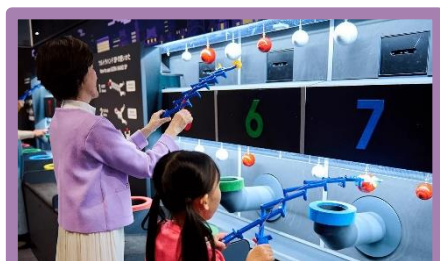

SHIGUREDEN 1 x 2

LOVE TESTER 1 x 2

NINTENDO CLASSICS 1 x 1

ULTRA HAND 1 x 1

GAME & WATCH 1 x 1

Most of the experiences are based on past Nintendo products.

The "Shigureden" experience was inspired by a museum of the same name from 2006, now called the "Saga Arashiyama Museum of Arts and Culture". Nintendo's former president, Hiroshi Yamauchi, had invested in that facility.

2F

CRAFT & PLAY WORKSHOP

There are two workshops available, but their prices aren't included in the ticket. You'll need to reserve a spot when you arrive, and spaces are limited. Reservations are only available for workshops starting within 3 hours of the time on your ticket.

For example:

If your ticket has an entry time of 13:00 to 13:30, you can reserve workshops starting from 13:45 to 16:15, depending on the type you're interested in. Any workshops outside of this time range won't be available for reservation.

CRAFT

DURATION

Around ~1hr

PRICE

¥2,000/person

Create your own Hanafuda cards! Start by choosing a template that represents a specific month of the year, then paint and cut it out. Once you're done, you can even take them home as a keepsake!

PLAY

DURATION

Around ~30mins

PRICE

¥500/person

*for groups of two

You can enjoy playing Hanafuda cards without knowing the rules! The experience is based on "Hana-awase," one of the most popular Hanafuda versions, with advanced tech guiding you through the game.

CAFÉ

You can customize your burgers at the museum café, with over 270,000 possible combinations! By mixing and matching different ingredients and sauces, the café offers a unique experience for visitors.

They got exclusive drinks and sides to pair with your custom creation. But, the café is inside the museum so you will need an entry pass ticket to access it.

¥2,100 per meal

(including burger, side dish and drink)

SHOP

The shop has full of both general Nintendo merchandise and exclusive items! Same as the café, it's inside the museum, so a ticket is required.

INCLUDING:

- Various merch for all Nintendo consoles, shown respectively
- Exclusive Museum merch
- Classic sections featuring Nintendo's origins as purchasable items

ITEMS AVAILABLE

Giant Controller Plush

¥11,000/13,200

Console Logo Mug

¥1,990

Pen

¥1,320

Console Notebook
¥990

MORE:

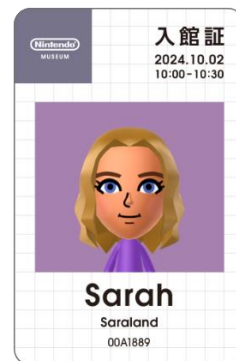

T-shirts, pencil cases, pouches, lanyards, stickers, keychains...
There's always more to discover in the store!

TRAVELING TIPS

1 Ticketing

Unlike other similar facilities, tickets of the Nintendo Museum use a drawing system, and is not available to purchase generally until a certain period. Once you are picked, you have 7 days to make your purchase using an eligible credit card. If you do not pay, the leftover tickets will go on sale in the middle of the month when the drawing results are out. The ticket itself is customizable with your own Miis created on your Nintendo Account.

Ticket
example:

EXAMPLE OF TICKETING PROCESS

September 1st: December ticket drawing become available
October 1st: Drawing results announced
October 7th: Deadline of payment if you're chosen
Mid October: General sale (first come first serve)

December, on your chosen date: VISIT!

2 Visiting

There's no parking lot for general audiences outside the museum. You will need to take public transportation or walk to visit. For visitors that has accessibility needs, you can reserve special parking spaces.

Kintetsu Railway Line Ogura Station

- 5 minute walk from the east exit

JR Nara Line Ogura/Uji Station

- 8 or 22 minute walk from both station's north exit

For visitors straight from the airports, going to the Kintetsu Railway Line's Ogura Station by any public transportations is the best idea.

3 Reserving

There are multiple services across the museum that requires reserving, by going to the information desk upon your visit, like the Craft & Play workshops. For accessibility needs such as wheelchairs, you can bring your own, but there are also rentals available that doesn't require early reservations.

Hope that's enough for a guide for visiting the Nintendo fan's sacred space: the Nintendo Museum! For more information you wanted to know that this guide doesn't cover, you can always check the official website:

<https://museum.nintendo.com> .

Without further ado...

HAPPY VISITING!

Pictures are from the Nintendo Museum official website or public medias.

Prices listed are subject to change. The guide will not update instantly to those changes.

Do not use this guide for commercial purposes.

This guide is not made or endorsed by Nintendo. It is purely a fan project.

@futuremachine - 2024